

The image contains a pie chart showing the percentage of total carbon dioxide equivalent emissions by sector in Goshen, Indiana for 2017 with no title.

The first option is industrial industry, which accounts for 31 percent of the emissions.

The second option is commercial energy, which accounts for 26 percent of the emissions.

The third option is residential energy, which accounts for 19 percent of the emissions.

The fourth option is transportation, which accounts for 13 percent of the emissions.

The fifth option is solid waste, which accounts for 11 percent of the emissions.

In the middle of the pie chart is the number 562,476 MT CO<sub>2</sub>e, which denotes the total amount of emissions in Goshen during 2017.