

This image contains a horizontal bar graph with the headline “Hoosiers broadly support efforts to address the effects of climate change. The title of the graph is “Percentage who support ‘somewhat’ or ‘to a great extent’ ...” The bottom of the chart contains a legend with dark blue representing “somewhat” and light blue representing “To a great extent.”

The first bar is labeled “Policies that seek to mitigate increased risks from pests like mosquitoes in Indiana.” The dark blue bar ends at 35 and light blue bar ends at 50 for a net of 85.

The second bar is labeled “Policies that seek to lessen damage to agriculture and crops in Indiana. The dark blue bar ends at 34 and light blue bar ends at 48 for a net of 82.

The third bar is labeled “Policies that seek to lessen the impact of flooding in Indiana.” The dark blue bar ends at 40 and the light blue bar ends at 38 for a net of 78.

The fourth bar is labeled “General initiatives designed to prepare for the effects of climate change on Indiana communities.” The dark blue bar ends at 41 and the light blue bar ends at 34 for a net of 75.